Victor Navasca Corpuz is a principal in the Dallas, Texas, office of Jackson Lewis P.C. Since joining the firm in June 2000, he has handled workers' compensation retaliation cases, all claims of discrimination under Title VII, FMLA, ADA, and ADEA and their state law equivalents and cases under the FLSA.

After law school, Victor practiced for eleven years in insurance defense, handling medical malpractice cases, wrongful death cases, and employment law litigation. Victor is a frequent writer and speaker on employment-related topics.

Victor was born in Manila, Philippines. He is an avid golfer, a huge Dallas Mavericks fan, a coach to his son's soccer and baseball teams, and plays the piano in his spare time.
