Benjamin Erickson is an associate in the Minneapolis, Minnesota, office of Jackson Lewis P.C. He has experience working with a wide variety of clients including small businesses, professional sports teams, and Fortune 500 companies. Ben views his relationship with his clients as a partnership and works from the outset to understand his clients' goals and wishes. He believes in a collaborative approach and works together with his clients through every step of the process, allowing him to obtain the best possible outcome for clients.

His practice focuses on providing preventative advice and counseling, including drafting and revising employee handbooks, policies, and employment contracts and agreements. In addition, Ben is an experienced litigator representing employers in disputes in state and federal court, and before local, state, and federal agencies on a variety of issues, including wage and hour, discrimination, retaliation, and whistleblower actions.
