Jesse Edelman is an associate in the Los Angeles, California, office of Jackson Lewis P.C. She represents employers in workplace law matters, including preventive advice and counseling. Jesse first came to the firm's Los Angeles office as a summer associate while still in law school, and after graduating, has been with Jackson Lewis ever since.

Jesse is known for her ability to develop thoughtful and creative solutions to complex workplace issues. Her practice focuses on defending employers against claims of discrimination, harassment, wrongful termination, and wage and hour violations. She also provides preventative advice and counseling on workplace law matters.

In addition to her litigation practice, Jesse also provides proactive counseling to companies on best practices for compliance with labor and employment laws, including developing company policies and procedures.
