

Associate, Boston

P 617-367-0025

F 617-431-8975

Ashley.Krezmien@jacksonlewis.com

Ashley C. Krezmien is an associate in the Boston, Massachusetts, office of Jackson Lewis, P.C. Ashley focuses her practice on representing and defending employers in range of workplace legal issues and provides preventive advice and counsel.

Before joining Jackson Lewis, Ashley worked as an associate at another labor and employment law firm in Boston. During that time, Ashley represented employers before regulatory bodies, as well as state and federal courts.

While attending law school, Ashley worked full-time as an assistant at an international labor and employment law firm. In addition, Ashley served as a judicial intern to Administrative Law Judge Neile Eisner at the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and served as a research assistant to Professor Jeffrey Lipshaw. Ashley was named to the Dean's List from 2018 – 2022 and received the Best Brief Award and the Suffolk University Jurisprudence Award in Business Entities Fundamentals and Commercial Law Survey. Upon graduating, Ashley received the Foley Hoag Labor and Employment Award.

Admitted to Practice

- Massachusetts - D. Mass. 2023
- New Hampshire - D. N.H. 2023
- Massachusetts 2022
- New Hampshire 2023