Regan Sherrell is an associate in the Nashville, Tennessee office where she represents employers across a wide array of workplace law matters.

Regan offers a unique experience and brings a dedicated and pragmatic approach to representing clients. Her core values of hard work, kindness, and open communication provide high-quality legal services to her clients.

Prior to joining Jackson Lewis P.C., Regan defended businesses in complex civil litigation matters, honing her skills in strategy and advocacy. While in law school at the University of Tennessee, Regan was actively involved in the Law Women organization and the National Moot Court team. These experiences have equipped her with a comprehensive perspective on the legal challenges employers face.

Outside of her professional endeavors, Regan enjoys spending time with her husband, her two dogs, and the latest fantasy novel on her bookshelf.
